

Prayer for the Election of a Holy Pope

In the Month of Mary and Under Her Immaculate Mantle

O Most Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—we adore You, we praise You, and we thank You for the abiding care You show for Your Church through the gift of the papacy.

As the Church prepares to elect a new Supreme Pontiff, we entrust this sacred moment to Your divine providence.

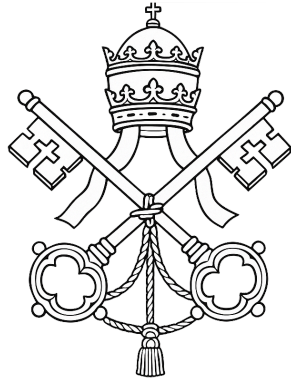

Grant us the miracle of the conclave:

stir the hearts of the Cardinal Electors with the fire of a new Pentecost.

Let the Holy Spirit descend upon them with tongues of flame, that they may discern and choose a shepherd after Your own Heart—the one You have already chosen.

O Mary, Mother of the Church and Queen of the Apostles, in this month of May, so tenderly dedicated to your honor, we turn to you with filial confidence.

You appeared at Fatima to three humble shepherds, warning of trials to come, but assuring us of your promised triumph.

You appeared at Fatima to three humble shepherds, warning of trials to come, but assuring us of your promised triumph.

You called us to penance and prayer,
and you promised that in the end, your Immaculate Heart
would triumph.

Watch now over the cardinals,
as once you watched over the Apostles in the Cenacle.

Intercede, dearest Mother,
for the restoration of sound doctrine,
the renewal of Christian morals,
and the restoration of the sacred liturgy.

Gather your children into one fold under one shepherd.
Heal wounds, dispel confusion, and restore unity.
Through the heart of the Holy Father yet to come,
let the dawn of your triumph begin.

O Virgin Most Powerful,
clothe the new Pope in holiness, humility, and apostolic courage.

May he be a father to the poor, a voice for the faithful,
a guardian of the sacred, and a light in the darkness.

Come, Holy Spirit—
come through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
and renew the face of the Church. Amen.
